Daily Announcements

- ♣ All students and staff - Please bring in empty, clean recyclable bottles / plastic for art projects! Bring in your bags of recyclables. The more the better! Collection boxes will be located in the Rotunda Gallery, Cafeteria, and outside the art room. Thank you!
- ♣ Attention Boys' Basketball: We will have practice after school on Wednesday, February 6th but we will not have practice on Thursday, February 7th.
- ♣ Attention all 7th and 8th grade girls interested in playing Volleyball - Please have all paperwork into Mr. Mlyniec by this Friday.
- ♣ Just a reminder that the Six Flags Reading Logs are due to Mrs. Jenkins by February 15th
- ♣ Carnations will be on sale for $1.00 during all lunch waves on Thursday, February 14th. There will be a variety of colors. Please help support the class of 2019 and have a great Valentine's Day.
- ♣ Today's weather will be sunny with a high of 44 and a low of 33 degrees Fahrenheit.
- ♣ Now it is time for this week's math riddle: A bat and a ball together costs $1.10. The bat cost a dollar more than the ball. How much does the ball cost?
- ♣ And now it's time for Avery's Daily Dosage of Quotage, please listen closely, "Goals determine what your are going to be", Said By Julius Erving.
