Thank you to everyone for helping to make this year's Read Across America week memorable. It was great to see everyone getting involved in our themed days as we highlighted the importance of promoting a love for reading to our students. Thank you to our school librarian, Heather Ley for organizing Thursday's Read-a-Thon for our Kindergarten through Grade 2 students. Also, thank you to our art teacher, Kristina Tuttle for creating the Dr. Suess-themed scavenger hunt for our students to take part in.

Healthy Hint of the Week

Avoid having phones or electronic devices in the bedroom at bedtime. Sleep has such an impact on our health, and this routine is one way to make sure that everyone is sleeping at night.

That is all we have for this week's Dear Parents and Friends. Have a great weekend!
