Sample Remote Learning Suggested Schedule

We understand that families may have quite different circumstances as they navigate through remote learning days. Below is a sample schedule. We are providing this as a guide for you to refer to. Some households may need to shift times to accommodate parent work schedules. Some students may take longer to complete activities than others. If you are not able to follow this schedule, it is highly recommended that you provide your child with a predictable structured schedule to the best of your abilities.
